WHEN ANIMALS SLEEP

They rest in the hands of Christ!

Jellyfish sleep despite having no brain.

Jesus provides a bee abundant sleep so she can remember the location of the many flowers she visits each day.

Play is exhausting.

Research shows that all dogs dream, but smaller dogs dream more often.

Koalas sleep a lot because their diet of Eucalyptus leaves is difficult to digest, requiring long periods of inactivity.

Being a parent is exhausting.

A giraffe can sleep standing up but must lie down at least a couple of hours a day.
